At the invitation of the archbishop, she established a Catholic girls' school in Baltimore, MD which initiated the parochial school system in America. To run the system she founded the Sisters of Charity in 1809, the first native American religious community for women.

From Fr. Jesse Burish

Praised be Jesus Christ

This Sunday's Gospel is one that is centered around religious action or ritual. St. Luke, our Gospel writer, says how the Holy Family of Mary and Joseph and the infant Jesus went to the Temple in Jerusalem for the ritual purification and presentation, all in accordance with the precepts of the Jewish Law of Moses. Jesus and the Holy Family did not shy away from religious ritual. For those who like to assert that organized religion and religious ritual are bad or that it was something which Christ came to do away with, they should read the Gospels more closely. By humbling themselves in obedience and placing a priority on worship, and in this case, the structured worship within Judaism, the Holy Family put themselves in a position to receive beautiful blessings and insight from Simeon and Anna, who were waiting for them, as it were.

This fact should be insightful for us in our spiritual lives. God continues to wait for us in the place of worship. When we attend Mass and the other sacraments, particularly regularly going Confession, we encounter God who has been "waiting for us" to show up, ready with a blessing to bestow on us. This is by no means sentimental, because sufferings and struggles in our Christian life are going to come and we will share in Christ's Passion in one way or another. Nonetheless, God waits for us with the encouragement we need, if we show up and make our "holy appointments"—be that our weekly Mass obligations, our daily prayer time, our other commitments to growing in faith and fellowship, and the commitments of our vocation and state in life—with a spirit of obedience and humility.

The Feast of the Holy Family, particularly with this Sunday's readings, provides us an opportunity to renew our commitment to the Church's vision for traditional family rooted in marriage between one man and one woman, and that such a family be supported by bonds of community with extended family and/or a community of other families. Speaking about how faith and salvation passes by way of the family, and how the Holy Family models the importance of religious practice, I was reminded of an article I read last year entitled, "The Real Reason People Leave Religion." As we all know, with each new generation, fewer and fewer people claim any religious affiliation or practice any religion. The author of this article, Daniel Cox, states that while there is no single answer, "the most compelling explanation is that changes in American family life precipitated this national decline. American families have changed dramatically over the past few decades and many churches have been slow to respond. Americans raised in blended families, interfaith families, or single-parent families are far less likely to have participated in religion growing up. And these types of family arrangements have become far more common today than they once were." He cites another author who, in 2020, wrote of the disintegration of traditional family life that featured large, interconnected networks of extended family members—grandparents, in-laws, cousins, nieces, and nephews, and argued that because these family networks are no longer strong today, many cultural and religious values are no longer effectively transmitted. Cox concluded by stating that "there is no more powerful explanation for why Americans leave religion, or why they never take it up in the first place, than the family."

Both our Gospel and the article which I quoted point to why we as Catholics must continue holding up and holding onto the traditional Christian vision for family, and maintain networks of families, and seek to follow the example of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. For in a very real way, our relationship with God and our salvation is riding on the family.

Epiphany Blessing of the Home: Jan. 5

Epiphany means "manifestation." The first epiphany was the visit of the magi to adore the Christ Child. Their gifts reveal this holy Child's identity; gold for Christ's Kingship, incense for His divinity, and myrrh for His sacrifice on the cross. It is traditional for parish priests to bless water, chalk and incense on the eve of Epiphany, and for families to use them for the blessing of their homes the next day. Join us for Epiphany next Sunday and take home some blessed chalk and a blessing for your home after Mass.

PLEASE PRAY FOR THE REPOSE OF THE SOULS OF

† Kenneth Guden (ND)

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May he rest in peace. Amen. May his soul and the souls of all the faithfully departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Mass Schedule Change Updates

When changes were made to the weekend Mass schedule at the beginning of September, it was indicated that we would take the next few months to discern any final changes following the reopening of Holy Ghost Church after the renovation. After careful consideration, we've decided to make the following minor changes:

- Beginning the Sunday after Christmas, Dec. 29, the 8am Mass at Holy Ghost will shift to 7:30am, and the 9:30am Mass at St. Bridget will shift to 9:15am. The 11am Mass at Holy Ghost will remain the same. The Saturday vigil Mass at Holy Ghost will remain discontinued.
- Additionally, starting Friday, Dec. 27, all Friday morning Masses at Holy Ghost will be at 8am. Friday morning Masses will be discontinued at Notre Dame.

In addition to the Friday Masses at Holy Ghost, there will be an opportunity to submit Mass intentions for nursing home Masses celebrated on Fridays at Wissota Health, Veterans' Home, & Chippewa Manor.

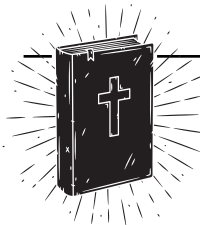

Thank you again for your flexibility and God bless!

MONDAY PRAYER GROUP We meet at the temporary Adoration Chapel next to the Goldsmith Chapel, the Avila Room. We meet every Monday from 9am-10am. The object of the group is to pray for personal requests, our church, nation, and world. The prayers consist of The Chaplet of Divine Mercy, the Rosary, & the Litany of Trust. "When people say the Rosary together it is far more formidable to the devil than one said privately, because in this public prayer it is an army that is attacking. It is very easy to break a single stick, but if you join it to others to make a bundle, it cannot be broken. In union, there is strength."

The Chosen

Join us Tuesday evenings beginning on Jan. 7 at 6pm in the GREC as we watch Season 1 of The Chosen together. We will watch, and then discuss the episode (with the help of the St. Augustine Institute) each week. We will meet 8 weeks in a row. Come and see why so many people are watching a show about Jesus and how viewers come to see Jesus through the eyes of those who knew Him. This event is open to the public and a great way to invite someone back.

Contact the Notre Dame office at 715-723-7108 to RSVP

(we want to make sure we have enough materials) or if you have questions. Let us know if you need childcare - we will do our best to arrange it for you if you give us at least 1 week notice.

Share the Joy: Bring One Back! Find Joy in Christ in the Eucharist! Share that Joy with others! Bring fellow Catholics away from the faith back to Mass! How will you Share the Joy? (1) Pray intentionally for 3 people away from Jesus and His Church. (2) Write a warm & thoughtful letter, encouraging the practice of faith. (3) Find a way to care for those at Mass with you.

Morning Offering

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, we offer You this day,
All our works and sufferings, all our joys and prayers.
We give them for Your glory; we give them for Your praise.
Let us be Your humble servants; let us love You in all ways.
Amen

THIS & THAT FROM SR. YVONNE

"FOCUS ON THE FAMILY" | Here we are at the first Sunday after Christmas. The Catholic Church celebrates the feast of the Holy Family: Jesus, Mary and Joseph. The Bible does not tell us a lot about the Holy Family. We know that Joseph was a kind and compassionate man, eager to do God's will. He raised Jesus as his own son even though he was not Jesus' biological father. Jesus was raised by Mary and Joseph in a home with lots of love and faith. We can be sure the Holy Family had their moments of conflict and crisis, as all families do. Luke tells us in the Gospel today that Jesus gets separated from his parents, staying behind in the temple. Yes, they were worried until they went back to the temple and found Jesus there. Mary and Joseph didn't understand that their child, found in the temple, was not lost at all: he knew his vocation and had answered the call. Mary and Joseph's love for Jesus helped them to survive this conflict and they grew stronger because of it. To the Church, the Holy Family is a model of respect, compassion, love and faith in family life. If we can duplicate the love that Mary, Joseph and Jesus had for each other, there is no telling what the rich effects on our health, our well-being, and our overall happiness might be. We have to remember that family is not limited to those who share the same bloodline. There are possibilities for family everywhere: at church, at our workplace, or among those who share common interests with us. How does your family express love and respect for one another? What crises and conflicts have you and your family survived? What can you do now to bring the qualities of the Holy Family more fully into your family life? On the feast of the Holy Family, may we strive to be strong and healthy families, full of thankfulness and love for each other. You may not have the perfect family, but you can become a holy family as you grow "in wisdom and age and favor." There is much to be said for a close and loving family. As we head for the new year of 2025, let us be thankful for the blessings of family we experienced during this holy season.

JUBILEE 2025

Another Jubilee year has begun. The Church celebrates a Jubilee year every 25 years. The theme is "PILGRIMS OF HOPE." The official start of the Jubilee is the day after Christmas 2024. If you listen to the news, you are aware of the discord around us and how rotten people can be. As Catholics, our vocation is to be people of hope. It is our job to witness that God loves us, and that joy is our legacy. During this Jubilee Year, we might ask ourselves how we might promote an atmosphere of hope. As Our Lady of the Falls Catholic Community, I am sure that we will hear more as to how we can become "PILGRIMS OF HOPE." Let us pray for each other as we end 2024 and bravely step into 2025 with many graces and blessings. Have a great week!
